Julian and Sponcia to go Brokeback

Times are tight even with Barack “put it on my grandkids tab” Obama promising to bring us out of the doldrums. In an effort to conserve hard earned yen, tour founder Joe “Nazi, Spanky” Sponcia has reached a tentative agreement with Sam “Stads, Mr. Robot, Spalding” Julian to sleep together while in Myrtle.

Metrosexual Sponcia commented “It was a tough decision but Sam and I have slept close before...as close as a foot away at Springdale last year so I thought what the hell. As long as his arm or leg hair doesn't touch mine, I think I can manage.” Julian noted “If he doesn't wave the covers or talk politics I think I can take one for the team. Julian added “Spanky mentioned bringing a splitter for his ipod and I know it is loaded down with Coldplay, that’s about all I need.”

For the record, the bed is king sized and tour officials in Karns are looking into a possible divider just in case Julian tries spooning in the middle of the night.

RANDOM TOUR NEWS: WILLIAMS SNUGGLES, WARING STRUGGLES

In a move that stunned fellow Rednecks on May 24, 2009, Byron “Snuggle Bear” Williams bailed on playing a potential 36 holes at Oak Ridge CC in favor of snuggling?

Mark “G.I. Jane” Waring struggles on the same day as Williams bails and has seemingly lost his patented power draw? “Spanky” Sponcia commented “I tried to work with Mark the next day but he has so many things going at once. His shut stance, Nancy Lopez top position, and re-route-hold off at the bottom is a train wreck waiting to happen. A swing like that needs timing and hours on the range, hopefully he will do the necessary work to be ready for Myrtle.”

Rodney “Captain Hook” Collier tuned up for the MB wing contest with a respectable 18 wings and 6 beers in an hour and a half with Lacy “Underall” Sponcia and “Spanky” Sponcia on May 25, 2009 at Wild Wings. Williams said quote “he has no chance.”

Tools every Redneck should carry:
- Brush T - Some may scoff but reducing sidespin isn't junk science, this one works
- Sky Caddie or Rangefinder - I prefer the sky caddie because of its speed, plus you don't have to see the flag to know yardage.
- Vaseline (Petroleum Jelly version) - There are a few different versions but the old PJ is the best. There is a creamy version that looks tempting but believe me, it will run down your legs once the temperature reaches 88 degrees.
- Line em' up tool - Why people play golf without putting lines all over their ball is beyond me? This will save you 3 strokes minimum.
- Pelz yardage written on wedges - Why guess from 47 yards out when you can know? This is a no brainer!
Player Profile:
Mark “Vesuvius, G.I. Jane” Waring

Redneck Rookie Mark Waring (Long time roommate of Rodney ‘Sprinkles!’ Collier) is one of the longest hitters to ever play on the Redneck tour and at this moment seems to be the most focused to win the coveted MBRNT title. Waring has shed the crutches holding him back, namely the Heavy putter and Q-link but still has one thing holding him back. “G.I. Jane” has reportedly been playing with locally reformed fellow ASS (Anger Suffering Syndrome) compadre Justin Metzger to work out possible ridicule issues that may arise in Myrtle from Rednecks making fun of his inevitable snowmen.

Rodney “Captain Hook” Collier has recommended the tour Yukon XL stock extra X-100 shafts and quick set epoxy just in case the shaft snapping begins. The tour is checking into possible refundability of cart fees in case “Jane” blows a gasket and wants to hoof it.

Local Hooters to Host Wing Eating Contest for MBRNT

Tour officials from the Redneck capital in Karns were contacted by Hooters officials yesterday and have agreed to host the first, what we hope to be, annual wing eating contest in Myrtle Beach.

Rednecks will have one hour and thirty minutes to eat as many wings as they can fit in their pie hole with the grand prize: free food, beer, commemorative T-shirt, and picture taken with up to three Hooter’s representatives.

Scoring for the contest:
1. Naked wings are worth one point (must be hot)
2. Battered wings are worth 1.5 points (must be hot).
3. Each glass of beer is worth 3 points.
4. Bonus 5 pts. will be awarded for 3 mile sauce and 10 pts. for 911.

Heavy odds are being laid on Sam “Spalding” Julian and Byron “Jailbait” Williams to win the title but dark horse Erik “Chernobyl” Scott could give them a run for their money with his legendary immunity to the effects of alcohol.

Ways to Cope with Anger on the Course

Golf is a humbling game, often times made more frustrating by high expectations of ones ability. The following tips have been compiled by the MBRNT to assist in any and all mental breakdowns that may occur while competing for the coveted MBPOY award:

1. Be realistic about your game, because you may practice a lot doesn’t always mean your game is in good order especially when grooving a faulty swing.

2. Ask yourself after a bad shot, “Am I really good enough to be angry about that shot?”

3. Ask yourself also, “Does getting mad ever make me play better or simply give me temporary relief?”

4. Use a positive mantra instead of bashing yourself after a wayward shot. Try this: “I am great, my golf swing is great, and nobody can get me down, this game is easy.”
